

CONCLUSIVE CONTEST DAYS ARE HERE

ORGANIZATION COMPETITION IS KEEN SUBSCRIBERS TAKE NOTICE

CONTEST TOTAL GAPS ARE ALL CLOSING UP

First Daily Count Brought Out a Heavy Vote and the Results Are of Much Interest to All Who are Following the Progress of the Bulletin Contest.

Developments as a result of the first daily count in the Bulletin's trip and piano contest yesterday, show that there is to be a closing up of the gaps in the totals of all the contestants. Another point of interest is the narrow margin of votes that separate the leading organization candidates. The competition between these candidates in the conclusive contest days will be keen.

Elks Had Fifty Thousand.

More than fifty thousand was the deficit vote of the Hilo Elks. This organization candidate has made no great showing since their entry into the contest when they took second place at the first count after they were nominated. At the time other organization contestants looked at their big starting score with something akin to apprehension but at every count following, many thought they had done their best at first. But, behold their advance yesterday, and the total that carried them forward.

It looks much like the Elks had just begun to get a good start. Look out for their vote at the final count on June 24th.

St. Louis Follows Kams.

St. Louis, the Kams ancient and acknowledged foe, is hovering near to the leading organization total of more than three hundred thousand. Members of both these organizations say that they fear none of the other candidates for the piano prize but the voting indicates that they will have reason to change, before the decisive day.

St. Elizabeth Church and Eagles.

The St. Elizabeth Church changes places with the Eagles again. Scarcely a count is made that these two organizations do not shift about but it is always a change between the two. Neither seems able to leave the other more than one point behind.

Some Low Score Trippers Move Up.

Only a few votes is all that holds ninth place for Mrs. Overend who is so closely followed by Miss Fetter, Miss Mollie Thomas is within just as close a margin in her pursuit of John Leite's place at tenth. Miss Woodward was forced to give up thirteenth place, a position she has held steadily during almost the entire contest, on account of the heavy balloting of Mrs. Chas. Akau who cast enough votes to make a move-up. Miss Burlem lost her place to Miss Kelley at this count as did several other low score candidates who had to make way for Fred O'Brien of Kohala who moves well up into the eighteen thousand class.

Count Again Today.

Another count will be made this evening after four o'clock and the results will be published tomorrow. The daily counts will be continued until after the count on Saturday evening. The Saturday count will be the last one made before the final count by the contest judges on Saturday, June 24th.

Something Still To Do.

It's wonderful how much can be done after you think you have exhausted all of your resources. Candidates will say to us one day that they do not know where to turn for another subscription, and the very next day perhaps they will come in smiling and turn in the biggest bunch of business they have yet secured. It's something like gold mining—names will be announced in due season. All contestants will have the right to select a friend or relative to represent them and look after their interests during the final count of the ballots.

No Paper Votes After Saturday, June 17th.

The coupons in the paper good for votes will not appear after June 17th. The reason for not running the coupons during the final week is that an advantage would be given Honolulu subscribers over those on the outside islands. The island readers would not have time to mail all the coupons back for the final count.

New Subscriptions and Old.

A number of inquiries are made daily as to the votes allowed on new and old subscriptions. Votes are allowed on both, but only when the renewals pay in advance.

New subscribers means increase in circulation. Therefore no one will be allowed to change the name of the old subscriber from one member of the family to another, in order to receive more votes.

Names of candidates when first nominated will be printed for one time and then not again until they receive votes at some count.

Subscribers sending in payments to the Bulletin must always mention the name of the individual trip contestant and the organization contestant, they wish to vote for, as all ballots are filled out before leaving office. You can hold back the ballots as long as you wish. Always state whether you want the votes cast or returned to you.

Every subscription payment made on or since March 28th entitles the payer to votes for a trip contestant. Every payment made on or since April 27th entitles the payer to votes for both a trip contestant and an organization contestant. Present receipts and votes will be issued.

Remember you get two sets of votes if you pay or have paid your subscription since April 27th; one for a trip candidate, and another for an organization candidate. An equal number of votes as given in the standing vote schedule are issued for both.

Keep your paper coupons for trip and organization candidates separate and do not roll the votes. Send them in, in envelopes with the name of the candidate and the number of votes they contain written on the front. This will help to make counts accurate and prompt, and permit you to estimate what correct total should be in advance.

Every copy of the Bulletin will contain a coupon, which, when properly filled out, will entitle the holder to votes of the number specified. Votes are also issued on paid sub-

PRINCIPAL IN FAMOUS FRAUD CASE IS HERE

John F. Gaynor Arrives With Family On Mongolia to Seek His Health.

John F. Gaynor, who, with Benjamin D. Greene, served four years' imprisonment in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., for participation in the Savannah harbor improvement frauds, arrived in Honolulu Monday on the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia, accompanied by his wife, daughter and son. Mr. Gaynor is here for his health and expects to remain for several weeks.

The San Francisco Examiner prints the following in connection with Gaynor's history:

"Gaynor, like Greene, took the pauper's oath following his release from the penitentiary, and was thus enabled to escape paying the $575,000 fine imposed in addition to his prison sentence."

"The prosecution of Gaynor and Greene attracted widespread attention and grew out of contracts they had for improving Savannah harbor. Their operations, under the name of the Atlantic Construction Company, involved hundreds of thousands of dollars, and caused the downfall of Captain Oberlin Carter, U. S. A., who was convicted of conspiracy, cashiered from the service and sentenced to five years' imprisonment at Fort Leavenworth. Carter was a member of the Panama Canal Commission, a military attaché at London and one of the most distinguished officers in the American army."

"The profits in which Gaynor, Greene and Carter were declared to have shared in the harbor frauds were estimated to be as high as $2,000,000 during the trial of the three men."
